I draw a circle round my heart,
to keep me in your sight.
A big red circle round my heart,
to set my heart alive.

I am in love, like I have never been in love before,
the feelings in my heart have found a door - for you.

I grow a clover in my yard,
my lips about to turn.
A four leaf clover in my yard,
no reason for concern.

I am in love, like I have never been in love before,
the feelings in my heart have found a door.

A better day, a better day, I'm on my way.
It feels as though my wishes do come true,
and I'll never wish for more than you,
my darling you, came through.

I write a letter in the sand,
it's just for you to see.
A silly letter in the sand,
'bout where I wannna be.

I am in love, like I have never been in love before,
the feelings in my heart have found a door.

A better day, a better day, I'm on my way,
it feels as though my wishes do come true,
and I'll never wish for more than you,
my darling you, came through.
